Eric, Jerry, Joey, and Steven: I'm so sorry for the loss of your friend and former bandmate. He was an amazing singer /songwiter, and I've followed all your carriers for the last 23 years. I'm sure he was proud of you guys carrying on the Warrant name with Robert.

Condolences,

Richard

I am deeply sadden by the suudden lost of Jani Lane. I was in such awe of Jani and the rest of the guys. My first love and I loved the song "HEAVEN" we made our song. I have since grown up and married (not my 1st love) and had kids of my own. I have introduced them to Warrant's music and they all seem to really like " CHERRY PIE". Everytime I hear "HEAVEN" it brings me back to my youth and to that feeling of that first love. Thank You Jani Lane , Thank You Warrant :)

I am so sorry to hear about the loss of Jani. He was a great performer and he will be missed truly. I actually went to a Warrant concert at a little dive of a bar in Cedar Rapids, Iowa many years ago and it was a striped down concert up close and personal show. That was probably my favorite concert from Warrant and I have seen you guys 3 times now. I hope his girls never forget him and I hope he knows always will watch down on them. If you can, help keep his memory alive when performing since he was a big part of Warrant!!!! My thoughts and prayers are with you guys in your time of loss. Even though he wasn't with the group, I know he will always be part of your families.....Keep rockin' Jessica

I am sorry for the loss of your ex band mate, Jani Lane... :(He will never be forgotten and loved forever... He was my fave Rockstar of my younger years, and Warrant was and is still my fave band... I can remember the 1st time I heard Heaven on the radio... The album wasn't available for sale, yet... and I went every day to the record store until it was released! Sadly, I have only been to one Warrant concert... Just thinking back.... I was married to my 1st husband, back then, and our spare bedroom in our apt was my "Warrant room" Posters ceiling to floor... Ahhh.... the memories... RIP my teen heart throb, Jani Lane... Prayers go out to all friends and family...

Rest in Peace. Gone much too soon, far too young. As a fan we only knew the outside you but what a beautiful boy you were. And that voice. Thank you for sharing with us, with the world, your incredible talent, this amazing gift of music.

I was fortunate to travel and work with Jani and the boys on the Cherry Pie tour. I can tell you it was one of the most fun tours I have done in 25+ years of touring. Warrant never took that "I'm a rock star leave me alone" attitude. My thoughts and Prayers go out to his kids and to Eric, Jerry, Stephen and Joey. Remember the good times.
I will remember Jani with great memories. RIP my friend.

I had the great fortune of meet Jani at concert at Hampton Beach Casino , in NH.. He was such a great guy, he stood with us saved me from a drum stick to the head and also saved me from being slapped when Vince Neil went to stand on a table and it tipped and he fell on top the crowd. He also helped me and my friend get out side when the crowd rushed to front stage. I remember saying just grab my belt loops we're out of here. He was such a sweet person and made my night by just coming over and talking to us. I always hoped that one day I could take my daughter to see Warrant and maybe she could meet him too. But now it will never happen.
Thank you Jani for be such a wonderful Person and I hope your up there Rocking with Kevin Dubrow of quit roit and Ronnie James DIo and all the greats.
I Love You and will Miss You... :(

Still missing Jani. Many years ago my friends opened for you at Babes in Brewer, Maine. Despite the fact that my bf was the drummer in the band that opened for you all, hadn't gotten me a band pass, I still managed to catch the whole show that you and the boys put on. Upon meeting you, I knew right off, that you would be an amazing friend. I have never been so impressed with a musicians demeanor. You were just you, not a swelled head, better than everyone else, kind of person. People like you are so very rare. What a wonderful person!! I'm going to miss the long talks about everything from A to Z. I will never forget the call from you congratulating me on the birth of my son. It meant the absolute world to me. I'll always remember you as being the kindest, sweet, down-to-earth, real person I have ever met. I'm going to miss those talks. You were such a righteous individual. I know your up there, with a smile on your face, rockin out, knowing that you are loved and missed very much. Until we meet again....all the very best to you my friend.
